What you say in your letter received today about buttons came too late - The lance button which was put on Mr Allen's suit is on yours - There are none of the A.C. button to be had here I visited every military store & button factory in search of them

When Mr Allen first ordered his but none could be had.

If you should not receive funds before your exchange dont let it trouble you in the least - you can pay Mr Hollister when you return home and I will charge him with the amount -

I will charge expressage to you as the box is directed to you - and Mr Allen and yourself can share it as I received a note containing an order, today from Lieut Y. I.

Whitehurst. I suppose your 2<sup>d</sup> Lieut.
Is he Mrs. Lat. Whitehurst - brother of Saml. Whitehurst - 3<sup>d</sup> Lieut of the "Star Boy" - a Cavalry Co. raised in Washington? I cannot locate him by his name signed with initials -
yours I. G. W.
