

New York Dec 24. 1861

Cap Thomas Sproun

Dear Sir

Yours 13th Inst was recd this day the articles sent were to be landed at Foster Wharf Boston and transportation paid to there shall be able to ship the jackets Monday and ~~Tuesday~~ attended auction this day and purchased Colman Kelly Palmeral Shoes. Cases Boots, and Cloth Caps Cheap which will be forwarded then will any of the Men want more Valises. To ~~pack~~ their Clothes in, they will be needed when travelling home Should you be so fortunate as to be exchanged you must put me in communication with some of your Brother officers left, that I may continue to provide until all leave

If you have not got Silk Needles. I see Hooks & enough say I send they will be sent

Owing to the high rate of exchange charged I return the $3. Bill sent me some time since it will be serviceable when any of the exchanged reach home all join in regards to you. Should Col. Mearns be allowed to stop to settle his bills. Hope to have the pleasure meeting with him here should be or you get home. use your friendship for Col Wood as prisoner at Richmond. he is your friend of mine

Yours Truly
W. DeWitt

Buyer of Cases Books
Balminals

B. A. D.

Nov 14-61

Capt. Howard
Lieut. Col. A. L. Munnell Commandant
J. H. Warden
Boston

Books

House on Snow 1
Spiny Castle 1
Cardiphium 1
4 papers 2
Dickens Sketches 1
Magazine 1
Annual 1
Poets 1
Hymns 1

10

Cornell Patrick
Poth. Gordon
Latham Hawkins
Frimmer
Peters Lineman