My Dear Sir-

I replied to your letter ordering the Overcoat last week. The coat was forwarded to you per Express on Saturday last. Enclosed you will find duplicate bill for same. It affords me much pleasure to be of service to you, and if there is anything else that I can do for you please let me know. I hope the coat may reach you safely, and suit you. Wishing you a happy new year and hoping that you may soon be exchanged. I remain

To Captain
T. Sparrow
