

New York Jan 29. 1862

Cap Thomas Spencer
Dear Sir

Your 27th was received yesterday
St Daniels passed thro Saturday but did not see him hope you will be able to arrange to pass thro the City I send this day 3rd Books for the Jonesborough Guard spoken for by Cap Duke 4th was wanted but did not have the pieces wanted.

am writing in much pain owing to a fall on the Ice yesterday hope it will be well in a day or so there will be $810 <sup>43/100</sup> due me for advances for all the men Mr Hardy informed me he shall not have the funds to reimburse me, as <sup>was</sup> expected by Major Gilliam should you not come this way you can have it arranged to visit me by the State M<sup>o</sup> this is due separate from ~~the~~ another advance

Should you come this way you could meet your men at Strep Moore.

I regret much the loss of Daniels hoping you would have been able to carry all your men home as you desired. I would have advanced otherwise as I am writing in pain and my hand in a shag. Shall expect you when can say more and send regards to friends

Yours Truly
T. J. Daniels

J. A. Jewell

July 29th 1872

Dear Mr. Jewell

I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to you by express of the 27th inst.

I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to you by express of the 27th inst. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to you by express of the 27th inst. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to you by express of the 27th inst.

I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to you by express of the 27th inst. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to you by express of the 27th inst. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to you by express of the 27th inst.

I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to you by express of the 27th inst. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to you by express of the 27th inst. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to you by express of the 27th inst.

