

Orders for the Day.

- No 1. The Chief of each Mess must report to the Orderly Sergeant each Morning, the sick in his Mess, stating in writing the nature of their complaint.
- No 2. The Orderly Sergeant must after Morning drill each day, report the sick in camp to the Surgeon of the Post.
- No 3. A sick man will be allowed to leave the enclosure except in cases of necessity, as long as he shall be on the sick list.
- No 4. Reveille will beat at precisely fifteen minutes before 5 O'clock in the Morning. At five precisely every man in camp not on guard, nor on the sick list, must answer to his name on ^{the} parade ground.
- No 5. For every absence from Morning or evening parade without cause, the delinquent will go on guard for twenty four hours.
- No 6. For every absence from roll call at other times, the delinquent will work time under guard one hour.

Company Rules

1. The company shall be managed by the directors.
2. The directors shall have full power to do all such things as the company may lawfully do.
3. The directors may from time to time alter the name of the company.
4. The directors may from time to time alter the objects of the company.
5. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.

6. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
7. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
8. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
9. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
10. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.

11. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
12. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
13. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
14. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
15. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.

16. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
17. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
18. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
19. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.
20. The directors may from time to time alter the powers of the directors.

