Hi Sailor

Well how the hell do you like the navy. Well by this time bout you are just beginning to get used to it.

Have you got any shots yet. Well when you do you will feel it. I can just see you when they give you the one needle in the ass. Boy does that hurt.

Well what have you been doing for excitement. I hurt my knee when we were aboard ship yesterday and it took 4 sticks to close it. About girls addresses es. Well us ~~plab~~ sailors don't give any names away to boots or skin heads.

When you have been in awhile then maybe I will give you some names

My girl and I have been going steady for 2 months we are engaged to be married on Nov 26 either of this year or next. I sleep down at her house every night as I get every night off. Let me know when you get your boot lamer and I will try and get home to see you. Are you sorry you joined the navy. To bad you ain't getting meals like we are up here.

Well pal I am going back to sleep for awhile then go out fishing for awhile. Take care of yourself but see you soon I hope.

your best
Pal

Dave
