June 1945.

My Dearest Son

I received your letter and I am very glad to hear from you, we are all fine.

Please excuse me for not answer your letter right away because we are moving and you can believe in what a mess I got myself in to, the house where we're moving is so dirty and they have to clean it

2) so just now we are staying over grandma Giallo for a few days and to top it all, Jerry got the measles, my good luck is still with me.

but when you come home on your first furlow you going to like it our house is 82 Bobberis Ave
next house to Profani.

are you suprise and moved?
Well now we talk about you how do you feel

3) have gained any weight? do you feel any better I hope so, tell me the truth do you like the navy life you should hear the father now talk about the war he drives me crazy

To day the father and mother now had a nice fight because the mother now want to go to the mission see but the old fashion people are ^{thick} head

I like to write more but I haven't anything to say so I'll say good night be a good boy and take good care of yourself. I really don't worry much because I know you are a good boy. best regards from every body,

all my love ~~at~~ and kisses mother
God bless you.

~~at~~ write soon.
