Dear Frank.

I received your letter & was very glad to hear from you. The are all fine & hope to hear the same from you. I see where the navy has you pretty busy. When you come home we'll let you cook & wash clothes. How would you like that? you have enough experience now don't you think? Da Da.

Are you trying to be funny? You got a nerve addressing me "Mrs." I don't think I'll ever be. Remember the proposal. Well, everything is all off. There was a little th misunderstanding.

I told him a thing or two. She don't write any more. I don't care. I'm not worried. It's a good thing I didn't take him serious. Somehow the way he wrote those letters he seemed serious. But when he come home he acted entirely different. So say, the heck with him & every body else.
They're all a bunch of evildoers.
I'm not kidding either. So you see Frank. I get all the luck.

Everything happens to me.
I guess I'm farseer to be on "Old Maid." Say, where did you get the idea of putting your own stamps. I look the navy gave you started <sup>it</sup> already. It was a pretty nice stamp. (I think that's what you want to call it).

Something different. That's you.
I bet you think I'm mean for not answering your letter soon.
I'm trying my best. It seems I get all my mail about. So how to <sup>answer to</sup> ~~easy~~ I just get through writing to mitt.

He's changed now. Everything is the same except for the A.P.O. - 464. So write this down when you write to him. If he should say something to you, don't forget. Let me in omit. I won't say anything to ma. I won't let the first time I kept anything from her. ~~the~~ Don't forget. Tell me everything. Have you heard from anyone in the mill? are you still with the some friends from Buttfield? Sam Di Filippo went Monday to the army.

His mother & father took it pretty hard. I heard he came home yesterday. I haven't seen him around.

Maybe you know. but here's some news! Catherine is going to <sup>have</sup> ~~have~~ a baby. She expects at some time next year. How do you feel to be an uncle again? Whatever you do, don't mention anything to Ma about it yet.
She doesn't want to worry her yet.

For the past 2 weeks we had such warm weather. I thought I'd bake. But this week it's been pretty cold. This weather is terrible. We get all the warm weather all at once. It's so cold I'm wearing a sweater in the house. If this keeps up we'll have the stove going. I'm freezing.

Boy, will you be surprised to see how the house looks.
It looks pretty nice. Especially the parlor. It doesn't seem if it's really our house.
Things are so different. I feel I'm dreaming. I have some are made & situated nicely.

Billy & Jerry are such pests. They were awful tonight. Ma had to go out & you should have seen them grafter her.

Almost a block away. Boy, they got it good. They cussed practically all night. I'm telling you they're worse than they ever were.

I never thought they could be so fresh. You should see them talk back & swear. See what you can do when you come home.

Well, Frank I think better close, I got 4 more letters to write.
Love Gene.
