Hello sailor.

Just received your letter & by the looks of things they must keep you pretty busy. I know I don't hear from you as often as I'd like to but I know just how it is. I had the same trouble at times. To write when ever you can and all will be appreciated. You know I'd like to have a picture of you. One with the uniform on. You send me one & I'll send one to you. I see your getting up in the world. An electrician now. Got your head we will have one smart guy in the family. Just keep the good work up. How is this city of Detroit? Plenty of women hey! But don't tell me you haven't got any time for them. There's always time for a little loving. Take it from me. I finally got my license and am now an ambulance driver. There's keeping us pretty busy lately. I've been saving a little dough planning to buy a new Pontiac when this is over. Well sales keep the good work up & all the luck in your Brother's world to you.

Mutt.
