Pittsfield, Mass.
Nov. 1, 1943.

Dear Godson Frank,

Rec'd your most welcomed letter + was very glad to hear from you.

I certainly feel ashamed of myself for not writing you sooner but with my working all the time I can't seem to get any time at all to write or do anything no snow. Every^{3.} thing is the same out here.

How did the parade
come along in Detroit.

Well, I can't seem to find much more to say so I close with regards from both your Godfather & Myself.

Love your Godmother
Mary

I'd like to do.^{2.} but I'm finally getting down to write to you.

Well, I'm glad to hear your school is coming along nicely. I suppose it is hard but I suppose every thing is like that, a little hard & a little easy.

You asked how the weather is in Pittsfield is.
Well, it's been cold but
