

Mrs Emily Filioff
17 Corn St
Taunton, Ma.

Nov. 5, 1943

Dear Frank

Your trucks? I thought I'd write a few lines before you get your leave, you can't tell when it will be. I bet you can't wait to get home & I can't say I blame you. I hope I could see everybody but I guess it won't be for a while. Well Fred finally got his license & what do you think he got it ~~in~~ inside of $\frac{1}{2}$ hr. not bad eh? He should have got it last week but had to get a doctor's O.K. on his heart trouble first so that delayed things. Last night we went riding for a while. It wasn't bad at all. I guess Fred will make a good driver. I hope! I hope! I just finished writing to Mitt. It's been some time since I heard from him. Have you?

is taken prisoner, tough eh?
I hope Mutt is O.K. I wonder how he likes driving an ambulance.
Say Frank you never mentioned if you got your pictures that you had taken last time you were home. I'm still waiting for one.

Have you told ma you expect to come home. I haven't said anything to her because you said you weren't so sure. I hope you make it all nor right. Let me know when you do go.

They lifted the demount rolls here, but they're fighting to keep it. I don't mind it too much, but it's so dark on the side streets otherwise it's alright once you get used to it. Now that every thing is lit up again it sure seems funny. I guess they'll have Christmas trees lit up

How is the weather there? Have you still got snow. He haven't any as yet. I hope it never comes.
I'd be satisfied if it just was cool but those are just dreams eh?
Have you made heads or tails out of your studies yet. I guess you'll have to if you want to get out of there. I hope you don't go far after you finish there.

See it's quiet here. Carol is asleep. Fred is out with the car. He never has enough I guess. He drives it to work everyday. I guess every guy is crazy about a car. I know Fred is, he treats it like a baby. Polishing it & cleaning this & that boy if he'd only do some of my work as good eh?
Did Virginia or anybody tell you that Peter Rante this Kansas. Last year we couldnt unless it was in a corner somewhere. I hope I can get a tree this year. They're going to be hard to get. Carol is so big now, I know she'd get a peek^{out} of it. Already I'm wondering what I should get her. I'll be going shopping tomorrow & see what's around. You have to buy things way ahead of time if you want anything.

I hear Fred driving in, I hope he has some ice cream. I could go for some how about you?
Well did not much of a letter nothing new has happened Maybe I'll have more news next time. So until then don't forget to write when your studies permit you. I'll write again soon.

Solong now
As ever Love
SISTER Eva.