Before I go further, I had better introduce myself. I am Libby.
I am pretty sure you should remember me. But I should be sure at you.
For I have not received a card from you, at all.

But, I'll forgive you. You must have several people to write to.

How is the navy? Do you like your new job. I'll bet you look pretty nice in a sailor suit. Well for now.

So long - Good Luck - Hope to see you. I miss & love

Dear Frank.

This boy who I am writing for says he does not

Hi Frankie

How are you.
I'm not much of a letter writer but I thought I'd drop you a line.

How are you doing in the Navy? did you get any stripes yet.

Well I wish that I could be with you in the cool and fresh air, but I guess I'm stuck here in the air conditioned mill.

#

The fellows and I are writing a line or two and it is only a line or two.

Well Frank I haven't much more to say you see we are all doing this during our working hours
so I will close this little letter with best regards from me and the gang.

Best Wishes

Nick

Dear Friends:

Just a line to let you know that everything here is about the same.

How are you and the navy hitting it off

We are kept quite busy
here:

When you get home don't forget to look us up.

Hoping you are well

Yours sincerely
Ed Higgins

Hello Frank

Just a line to let you that, every thing is fine out here. How is every thing with you. How do you like the navy.
The mill is the same old place as before you left. Well I may be in the Army before over

long. well take it easy and don't let it get you down. so long till I hear from you.

Frank Maffuccio

Dear Frankie,

Writing to you gives me more than a pleasure. I think this is a nice idea. Everyone writing to you.

The weather is very warm up here and it's about time. Every one in the shop is alright.

Frankie please try to talk to Hon and find out what's what. I wrote you another letter but you'll get the first 2.

one before this one. Frankly I did want to go out with you but was afraid to ask. It is really a mans place to ask a girl so I didn't bother. I don't write to no one but you although I love to write.
I'll spend more time swimming and going horse back riding. And I'll send you two pictures next week. Everyone in the shop is writing you a letter and it isn't a bad idea.

3.

Well I guess I'll get back at my spinning or Preston will be around after me. The time now is 9:50. I can't wait till lunch time.

Well I guess I'll have to close with the best of luck, very best regards and oceans of Love and a kiss on each waw.

Yours
As Ever
Scorchy

Hello Mark

Just thought I write a few lines. and let you know the dit. Well everything in the world is the same but that write by you left in your place is the dumbest bastard I ever saw but I don't care anymore Cause I'm leaving for the May Lady 6th and I hope to meet up with you.

We'll take care now

I'll be seeing you soon

Good Luck

Dave

Hi Frank

How the hell are you fine I hope keep that way. Well I'll be seeing you in month I hope I enlisted but don't tell me

one,

How's the navy treating good or bad.

The mill kinda dead no body
to have any fun with!

Just can't wait to the end of July my times up them and it will be good bye to the mill for me.

Your Pal
Dante.

Hi. Frank, how are you, fine I hope. hows things going on over there. I wish you'd get a furlough as before when you were here.

how are they treating you over there. well Frank we had a lot of rain over here its been pouring cats and dogs and were still waiting for the sun shine to come along. Well Frank Im running out of words so take care of your self and a lot of luck, Your Friend Albert. PINICOLA

Hi Soldier, oh no, I mean Sactor —

I know I owe you a letter & I guess this will make up for it. How's the Navy treating you, hoping they treat you + feed you well because when you come home on a furlough I expect to see a big man — We all wish that you were back on the job. We never realize how much we miss a person until he's gone. Aggie has left us, she joined the Marine & she'll be leaving soon. Hope she's not making a mistake..

It's funny, how we have so much to say & yet when we want to put it all down on paper, we seem <sup>to</sup> forget what to write. Well Spuler, I better get back to work now so I'll be saying so long until I hear from you; wishing you all the luck in the world.

Please answer soon
Always, Your Friend
Marie.

Dear Frank.

Received your card and was very glad to hear from you

I miss you a lot here. But I am sure you'll make a good U.S.N. MAN.

I'll write soon
to you. wish you all the luck in the world. Hoping to see you soon.

Mike
