Dear Brother,
I finally received one of your letters, dated Jan 3. It's been the first one in about two months. Now you wonder why I've never written. Did you forget that you told me not to write till you got your new address. Well that's what I did, and here is the first letter I got with your new address. I hope your not sore & think that I don't want to write to you. Now that I've got your address I'll write now often. I can see by that letter you sent that you must have written me but I haven't received any as yet. Now there isn't anything wrong with me everything is running along smoothly just now. I've been up to the front a few times & now quite a bit of acting. Things have been hot for a while but things are okay now so don't worry about me. So you are going to sea soon. I hope the folks know about it. I'd advise you not to tell them till you do go. Let me know what kind of work your going to do & what kind of ship your in? Now take care of yourself & be careful. All I could say is good luck to you. If you noticed my address has been changed a little, it's now 41st Med Coll. Co. I'll check now & will write again soon. Love
Frank Truzilla
