Dear Frank,

I received your letter today and was very happy to hear from you. I just got through writing to Ernie and I wrote in his letter to give you my regards in case I didn't get a chance to write tonight - but I guess I did get the chance after all.

I thank you for the compliment. I mean when you wrote that I'm a nice, sweet girl. That certainly is a compliment now a days!!!

I think I know how Ernie & feel. I mean mine are awful lot too.

I don't think Ernie will object if you do get the chance to give me that hug + kiss. He won't mind as long as it's friendly as I'm sure that's the way it will be.

Frank, while I was in school one day last week, I started to write a letter to you in one of my classes, well, the girl sitting next me said "ask him to drop me a line." She's was only kidding and I don't know that I took her seriously - so what I'm ~~now~~ driving at is, if I give to you her address would you write to her? She's a swell girl and my best pal. She's a swell looking and has brown eyes and auburn hair - she's 5'4" and weighs 120. So if you want to write to her - I'll even send you a picture of her before you write so you can see what she is like. I hope you don't think I'm being ~~snappy~~ forward or something - but she sure would be pleased to hear from you.

How have you been getting along? How's Ernie? He'd never tell me if he ever wasn't feeling good - that's how wonderful he is. He wouldn't want me to worry. I'm glad that you and him get on together so good. Ernie always was a person who could get along with people.

Did Ernie show you the picture of my little niece? She's the pride of our family.

Well Frank, I guess I've written about all I can think of. So until I hear from you again,
Good Luck and
As Ever,
"Auggie"
