Dear Frank,

I received your letter last week but I couldn't write until today. You see, we moved next door and it certainly is a job and a half to move. So I hope you'll forgive me this time. I'll be more prompt next time.

I enclosed a picture of the girl I wrote you about. I hope you like it.

Maybe someday soon, if Ernie doesn't object, I'll try to send you a snapshot of myself. I won't guarantee it - 'cause I don't take pictures very often. But if ever I have a picture that I could send to you - I will - but I won't promise it. I don't want you + Ernie to get in wrong together because of me - because it means a lot to Ernie, and to me, that he

II yes, Frank I do think that you and her are equal.
I'll write to her. I know she'll answer right away.
Here's her address:

Miss. Toni Palumbo
813 Strong Street
Schenectady, N. Y.

She's really swell. You'll soon find out for your self when you start to write to her. So don't forget to drop her a has a friend like you. I don't want to do anything to interfere. You do ~~know~~ know what I'm getting at - don't you. I think the world of Ernie - he means everything in the world to me - I guess you can understand that. Well, I guess I've written enough ~~of~~ about myself.

How are you? By the way, how's Bill? Give him my regards, won't you?

I

Well Frank, there isn't much more that I have to write. I do hope you'll answer as soon as possible.

So Frank, don't forget to write to Louie. Until I hear from you, So long

Frank — give my love to Ernie and tell him to take care of his cold — well

So long again Frank — enclose one for you. Hope you don't mind.

until I hear from you again — I'll remain

As Ever,

Angie

P.S. Let me know what you think about the picture.

God Bless You all.

Since yesterday was Palm Sunday — I thought I'd
