Hello Brother.

I received your letter dated Aug 2 and just got around to answering it. I have no excuse for not writing sooner its just that lately I can't write as I use to. I got to get in the mood. But dont worry I'll write or after or I can. Well how goes the battle for you. I bet you have it pretty hot at this. For me its not as bad as it use to be. Everything is running along smoothly right now. The way things are now it looks as though this war will be over soon. They cant last much longer. I had a few day pass & spent it in Rome. Had a swell time. Too bad you werent with me. I could really show you the town. Its one place I know you would enjoy seeing. Just like we had in our old history, remember. I also seen Pope Pius XII & had him bless me & my sisters. I think they will like that. Well sister lets hope this letter finds you in the best of health & hope we meet soon. Salary & all the luck in the world to you
Brother
Mario
