Dear Frank

Received your letter this morning and was very glad to hear from you. I'm feeling and hope this finds you the same. We thought Spring was coming for a while but we were fooled. It's turning cold again here in New York. New York hasn't changed much except that after midnight most of the places are closed. But nobody stops you from walking the streets. And that's what every one seems to be doing now. Sunday the girls and I went dancing at the Breasia Ballroom. We had a swell time coinciding the crowded place. Crowded with a bunch of creeps. The girls decided to stick to ourselves, which we did and had a heck of a time making up new steps and practicing up on some of the steps we're not so hip to.

Regards from
