Dear Frank,

Received another letter of yours this afternoon. I see you still haven't received any mail from me yet. I hope you get these v.-mail faster than those air-mail letters are taking. I'm feeling fine and hope you are too. Don't worry you haven't said anything to offend me. It takes an awful lot to do that. I can take just about anything. You should have been here when Germany surrendered. People went out of their way to celebrate. So you boys down there this may seem cruel but at least people knew some happiness for those few hours. Everything's going back to normal now. I hope it won't be long before the boys quit. Now another headache of mine starts with my kid-brother being shipped from Germany to there. Who knows you may even meet him. Hoping to hear from you soon.
