Dear Brother,
I received one of the most unusual letters from you I ever got. I understood just about three lines the rest of it was cut off entirely. I don't understand it at all. Did you by any chance try to tell me something which the censors didn't like? About a bunch of bastards. I know. Anyway it was good to know you written. Did you get my letter with the picture of myself & the girl I'd get? No I can't get mailed I was refused again. I don't know why but it could be because I'm coming home soon. And might be a civilian at that. I had 100 points you know so I stand a very good chance. It might be soon at that. Too bad you was out there I would like to see you. My girl took it pretty bad but she finally got over it and will wait till I go home & try to straighten things out for us to get married. How are things out there. I imagine they pretty but according to that chopped up letter I got from you. Other is no discovery on air mail so anything you would like to know ask me and I'll tell you. Hoping to see you & good luck. Let them fight so we can celebrate together.
Frank
