Received your letter - it was really good to hear from you. Tell me how are the docs treating you. It must be pretty rough down there. I'm still in 2 tabs and will probably be here for a couple more months. Guess I am finally going to get worried. This time I am almost sure of it. The big day is just about a month from now. I'll write you later & let you know for sure. Guess I was supposed to go home this week but I refused just so I can get worried. Guess might there I'm crazy but you can't understand the situation as well as I do. I promise for sure I'm coming home in October because the whole company is going home then. So I figured if I got worried first & then went home we would all be much happier. I don't know what I would have some trouble then you can imagine. I know a lot of people but like the idea but it just has to be that way. You know how your mail is sticking down a bit. I hope you not see at me for not writing more often. Well Frank love care
