Dear Frank,
I hope you'll excuse this V-mail. I'll write you a letter as soon as I get myself settled. I'm feeling fine and hope this finds you the same. I had a swell time on my vacation. It just flew by. One week we had rain every day but that didn't stop us as there was plenty to do. One thing wrong, there were no men. The place looked just like a War's camp. Now I know what it's like to be in the service and I've decided to stay home. Our second week was lovely. I got myself a lovely tan. I'm afraid it won't last long as I'm very fair skinned. We took some pictures and I'll send them as soon as I get them. Regards from the girls. Give mine to the boys. Keep
