

carefully expressed letter of yours in regard to the matter, and as expressed myself to Mr. Garrison.
While my sympathies were and to the afflicted family of the colored I had no hesitancy in deciding what was my duty. We are a poor church in today's world and a larger number for a long time than our funds. From our reaction with God we need the approval of good friends.

Yours truly
John