

October 31st. 1893.

Jacob Parker Esq.

Warrenton, N.C.

Dear Sir:-

I am instructed by the Governor to enclose you herein deed which was executed yesterday. Please acknowledge receipt.
 The Governor is just leaving for Bricebridge, having received a telegram from Eliza that shed and cotton had been burned.
 He does not know the amount of damaged but I trust it is not as bad as reported.

Very respectfully Yours,

Private Secretary.
