RESOLUTION PRESENTED TO THE FACULTY SENATE
BY THE INSTRUCTIONAL SURVEY COMMITTEE

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Instructional Survey Committee shall arrange for the release and publication of the names of the forty-nine full-time faculty members who were most highly rated by students and, where applicable, by faculty and administrators, for their undergraduate teaching from Fall, 1975 through Spring, 1976.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that the above-mentioned forty-nine faculty members receive letters from Chancellor Jenkins recognizing their teaching excellence during the academic year 1975-76.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that each full-time faculty member who taught undergraduate courses during the academic year 1975-76 be given, upon his request to the Instructional Survey Committee, information on the five-percentile rank in which he placed in the student survey.
