Revised Charge of

1. Faculty Governance Committee
2. Seven faculty members, plus ex officio: Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs or an appointed representative and the immediate past chairman of the Faculty in residence.
3. Quorum: Five faculty members exclusive of ex officio.
4. A. The Faculty Governance Committee considers matters relating to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Faculty Senate; the Faculty Manual, where there is no conflict with the functions of the Committee on Committees, unit codes of operation; unit reevaluations, and the East Carolina University Code. The Committee insures that unit codes continue to conform to the East Carolina University Code, all additions and deletions to both the university and academic unit codes to be submitted to the Committee, for its review, before submission to the Faculty Senate, and hears appeals by any faculty member concerning the application of governance procedures of both the university code and the unit code within his or her unit.
  - B. The Committee recommends changes in the Constitution and By-Laws of the Faculty Senate, the Faculty Manual, the East Carolina University Code and the unit codes to the Faculty Senate. When evaluating the implementation of governance procedures, the Committee makes recommendations to the unit and to appropriate administrative officials.
  - C. The Committee reports to the Faculty Senate as often as necessary, but at least once a year.
  - D. As an appellate body, the Committee is empowered to evaluate the manner in which governance procedures have been followed and to make this evaluation known to the appropriate administrative officials and faculty.

NOTE: In Number 4.A. - the phrase "calls for the required unit reevaluations as specified by the East Carolina University Code;" has been removed contingent upon the approval of the revised East Carolina Code.
