IV. Date of reports to the Faculty Senate during the year

None

V. Specific instructions given to the committee by the Faculty Senate, other than those found in the committee's Constitutional charge

None

VI. Brief statement of committee organization, subcommittees, research activities, etc.

The Committee's major topic was concerned with the financial problems being experienced by the Division of Continuing Education including the possible effects for faculty. Attendant discussion also involved the role of the committee. The committee was inactive part of the year due to changing administration and to illness.

VII. List of committee accomplishments including recommendations made to agencies other than the Faculty Senate.

The committee approved the following resolution contained in minutes of January 25, 1982:

WHEREAS, The Division of Continuing Education appears to be more susceptible to budgetary reductions than any other unit; and

WHEREAS, state allocations were cut from $105,000 in 1980-81 to $36,000 in 1981-82 necessitating staff reductions; and

WHEREAS, Continuing Education Faculty are more susceptible to legislative action than faculty in other units; and

WHEREAS, Collegiality would be enhanced if all specialists in a discipline belonged to the same unit; and

WHEREAS, Annual evaluations are more appropriate when specialists are evaluated by fellow specialists;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Faculty Senate explore possibilities and made recommendations for having full-time Continuing Education Faculty holding academic rank transferred to the appropriate academic units.

This resolution was presented to the Faculty Affairs Committee on January 25, 1982, for consideration and upon which the Faculty Affairs Committee made recommendation.

VIII. Citation of the resolution numbers of Senate resolutions that originated with the committee

None

IX. Proposals and/or business to be carried over to next year

The committee proposes that the resolution of the committee of January 25, 1982, and the recommendation from the Faculty Affairs Committee be jointly presented to the Faculty Senate.

(Faculty Affairs Recommendation, after discussion with Continuing Education Committee)

Be it resolved that the Faculty Senate explore possibilities with the appropriate units and the full-time faculty in the Division of Continuing Education of transferring said faculty to the appropriate academic departments.

X. Evaluation of the committee

- A. Structure: Good
- B. Duties: Clear
- C. Functions: Good
- D. Personnel: Excellent

XI. Suggestions for improving the effectiveness of the committee

The committee continues to work under the difficulty inherent in its structure which is that committee members have very little or no knowledge of the activities of the Division of Continuing Education. We do not have any proposals to remedy this problem but experience the problem acutely.
