

TO: Fellow Senators
FROM: Anne S. Briley, Library Services

The Library Faculty approved these proposed additions during their regular meeting April 14, 1983. We would appreciate your consideration and support of these additions.

Proposed Additions to the Report of the Educational Policies and Planning Committee

II. Definition of Academic

A student shall refrain from violating academically the Honor Code, which consists of the following:

- A. Cheating - The actual giving or receiving of any unauthorized aid or assistance or the actual giving or receiving of any unfair advantage on any form of any academic work.
- B. Plagiarism - Copying the language, structure, ideas, and/or thoughts of another and passing same as one's original work.
- C. Falsification - Statement of any untruth, either verbally or in writing, regarding any circumstances relative to academic work.
- D. Theft or mutilation of materials held by or made available through Joyner Library (including the Music Library) or the Health Sciences Library - Willful attempts to remove uncharged or non-circulating materials from an ECU Library or to damage library materials such as by removing pages, cutting portions of text or pictures from print or non-print materials.
- E. Attempts - Action towards the commission of any act which would constitute an academic violation as herein (that is cheating, plagiarism, theft or mutilation of library materials and/or falsification) shall be deemed to be a violation of the Honor Code and may be punishable to the same extent as if the attempted act had been completed or consummated.

III. Organization and Procedures

4. Procedure.

- b. After hearing the student, the faculty member may either dismiss the charge or find it supported on the basis of the evidence before him/her. If supported, the faculty member may record a failing grade in the course or some portion of it. Where mutilation or removal of library material is involved, appropriate fines and costs will be imposed in accordance with library policy. A report of the action shall be taken to the Associate Dean for Orientation and Judiciary.
