- V. No instructions given to the committee by the Faculty Senate other than those found in the committee's organizational charge.
- VI. The committee is formally organized and conducts business using Robert's Rules of Order. Among other activities, the committee was charged with consideration of the charges made in various unit codes because of the adoption of Appendix C. In cases where there was a question about a unit code, a representative of the unit was invited to meet with the committee and discuss the changes in their codes. A subcommittee (Sadler, Haney) was appointed to discuss with Chancellor Howell any references to salary recommendations that might be included in unit codes. Another subcommittee (Sadler, Haney and Bassman) was appointed to draft a proposal on the definition of voting faculty in Apendices A and L. A third subcommittee (Bassman, Daugherty) was appointed to draft a recommendation on faculty voting on constitutional changes.

VII. Committee accomplishments

Sent the following unit codes back to units along with the committee's suggestions for changes. (All were later revised by the respective units, resubmitted to the committee and approved.)

Nursing 9/30/83
Theatre Arts 9/30/83, 1/20/84
Home Economics 10/21/83
Continuing Education 2/3/84

Approved and sent to the Senate the following revised codes:

Aerospace 9/9/83
Technology 10/21
