CURRICULUM COMMITTEE
MINUTES

September 26, 1985

The Curriculum Committee met September 26, 1985, at 1:30 p.m. in Brewster B-103. Members present were: Muller, Steele, Grossnickle, Hancock, Daugherty, McMillan, Cain, Topper, Wease, Carlton and Wilson (ex-officio). Members absent: Yount and Templeton.

The minutes of September 12, 1985 were corrected to show that Professor Don Spence presented the Asian Studies Area course. The minutes were approved as corrected.

Due to a misunderstanding the ASAS 2004. Introduction to Japanese Culture (3) was reconsidered. Professor Robert Gowan presented the course and stated that it was almost entirely culturally oriented and to be consistent with the Chinese Culture course, they wanted it to count toward humanities in General Education. The Asian Studies Area Committee had not been aware that the Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee had struck the phrase concerning it counting for General Education. Hancock moved that based on the additional information the action of the committee remain as recorded in the September 12, 1985 minutes. Steele seconded. The motion passed. Professor Gowan pointed out that ASAS 2003. Introduction to Chinese Culture (3) should be added to the list of electives. It was moved and seconded to add this course to the list. The motion passed.

Professor Jean Huryn, Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Economics, presented the course SOCI 2125. The Sociology of Parenthood (3). McMillan moved to approve the course. Topper seconded. The motion passed.

The meeting adjourned at 2:15 p.m.
