REPETITION OF COURSE WORK

(To replace corresponding section on pg 43, ECU 1988-90 Undergraduate Catalogue)
(Additions are underlined; deletions are overstruck)

TO BE EFFECTIVE, FALL 1989

A student will not be permitted to repeat a course for which he or she has earned a grade of C or better, without written approval from his or her ~~departmental chairperson~~ <sup>unit administrator</sup> and the Associate Vice Chancellor for Undergraduate Studies. A student who desires to repeat a course in which he or she has earned a grade of D, must obtain an approved Raise Grade Form from his or her departmental office and submit this form to the Registrar's Office prior to enrolling in the course. A student who repeats a course he or she has passed in order to raise the grade will receive the original grade, hours attempted, hours earned, and grade points. The student will also receive the raised grade, hours attempted, and grade points. The raised grade, or last grade, stands. Students receiving an F on the raised grade must repeat the course if credit is required for graduation. Raised/grade forms/are/available/in/the/student's/departtmental/office/

A student who repeats a course he or she has failed will receive the failure (hours attempted and no grade points) and the raised grade with hours attempted, hours earned, and grade points. If a student fails a given course more than one time, he or she may take advantage of the Multiple F Policy available through the Office of the Registrar. (See GRADE SYSTEM, GRADE POINTS, GRADE POINT AVERAGE, Below.)
