Is Good Campaign Literature.

in two years, under the able management of the North Carolina busi- An idea of the extent of these ness man filling this very important frauds may be had from the fact position in Uncle Sam's counting that he has collected in fines and room, the Bureau of Internal Reve- forfeitures about $15,000,000. He nue has collected more money at less has also made a record in weeding cost and has recorded a higher de-out the illicit distilleries.

HE splendid record made by gree of efficiency than ever before Colonel William H. Osborn, commissioner of Internal Revenue is being used by cameral gaugers' fees—it is claimed that paigners as a strong argument in Colonel Osborn has saved the govfavor of the Wilson democratic ad- ernment money at the rate of $30,ministration. It is pointed out that 000 a month; that he has wiped out oleomargarine frauds and thereby saved the government a vast sum.