HONEY IN THE ROCK

For twenty-two years HONEY IN THE ROCK has entertained a national audience with its story of a mountain family torn by the anguish of the Civil War. The story is told through a spectacular combination of dance and traditional music, with plenty of fun, laughter and tears to entertain the whole family.

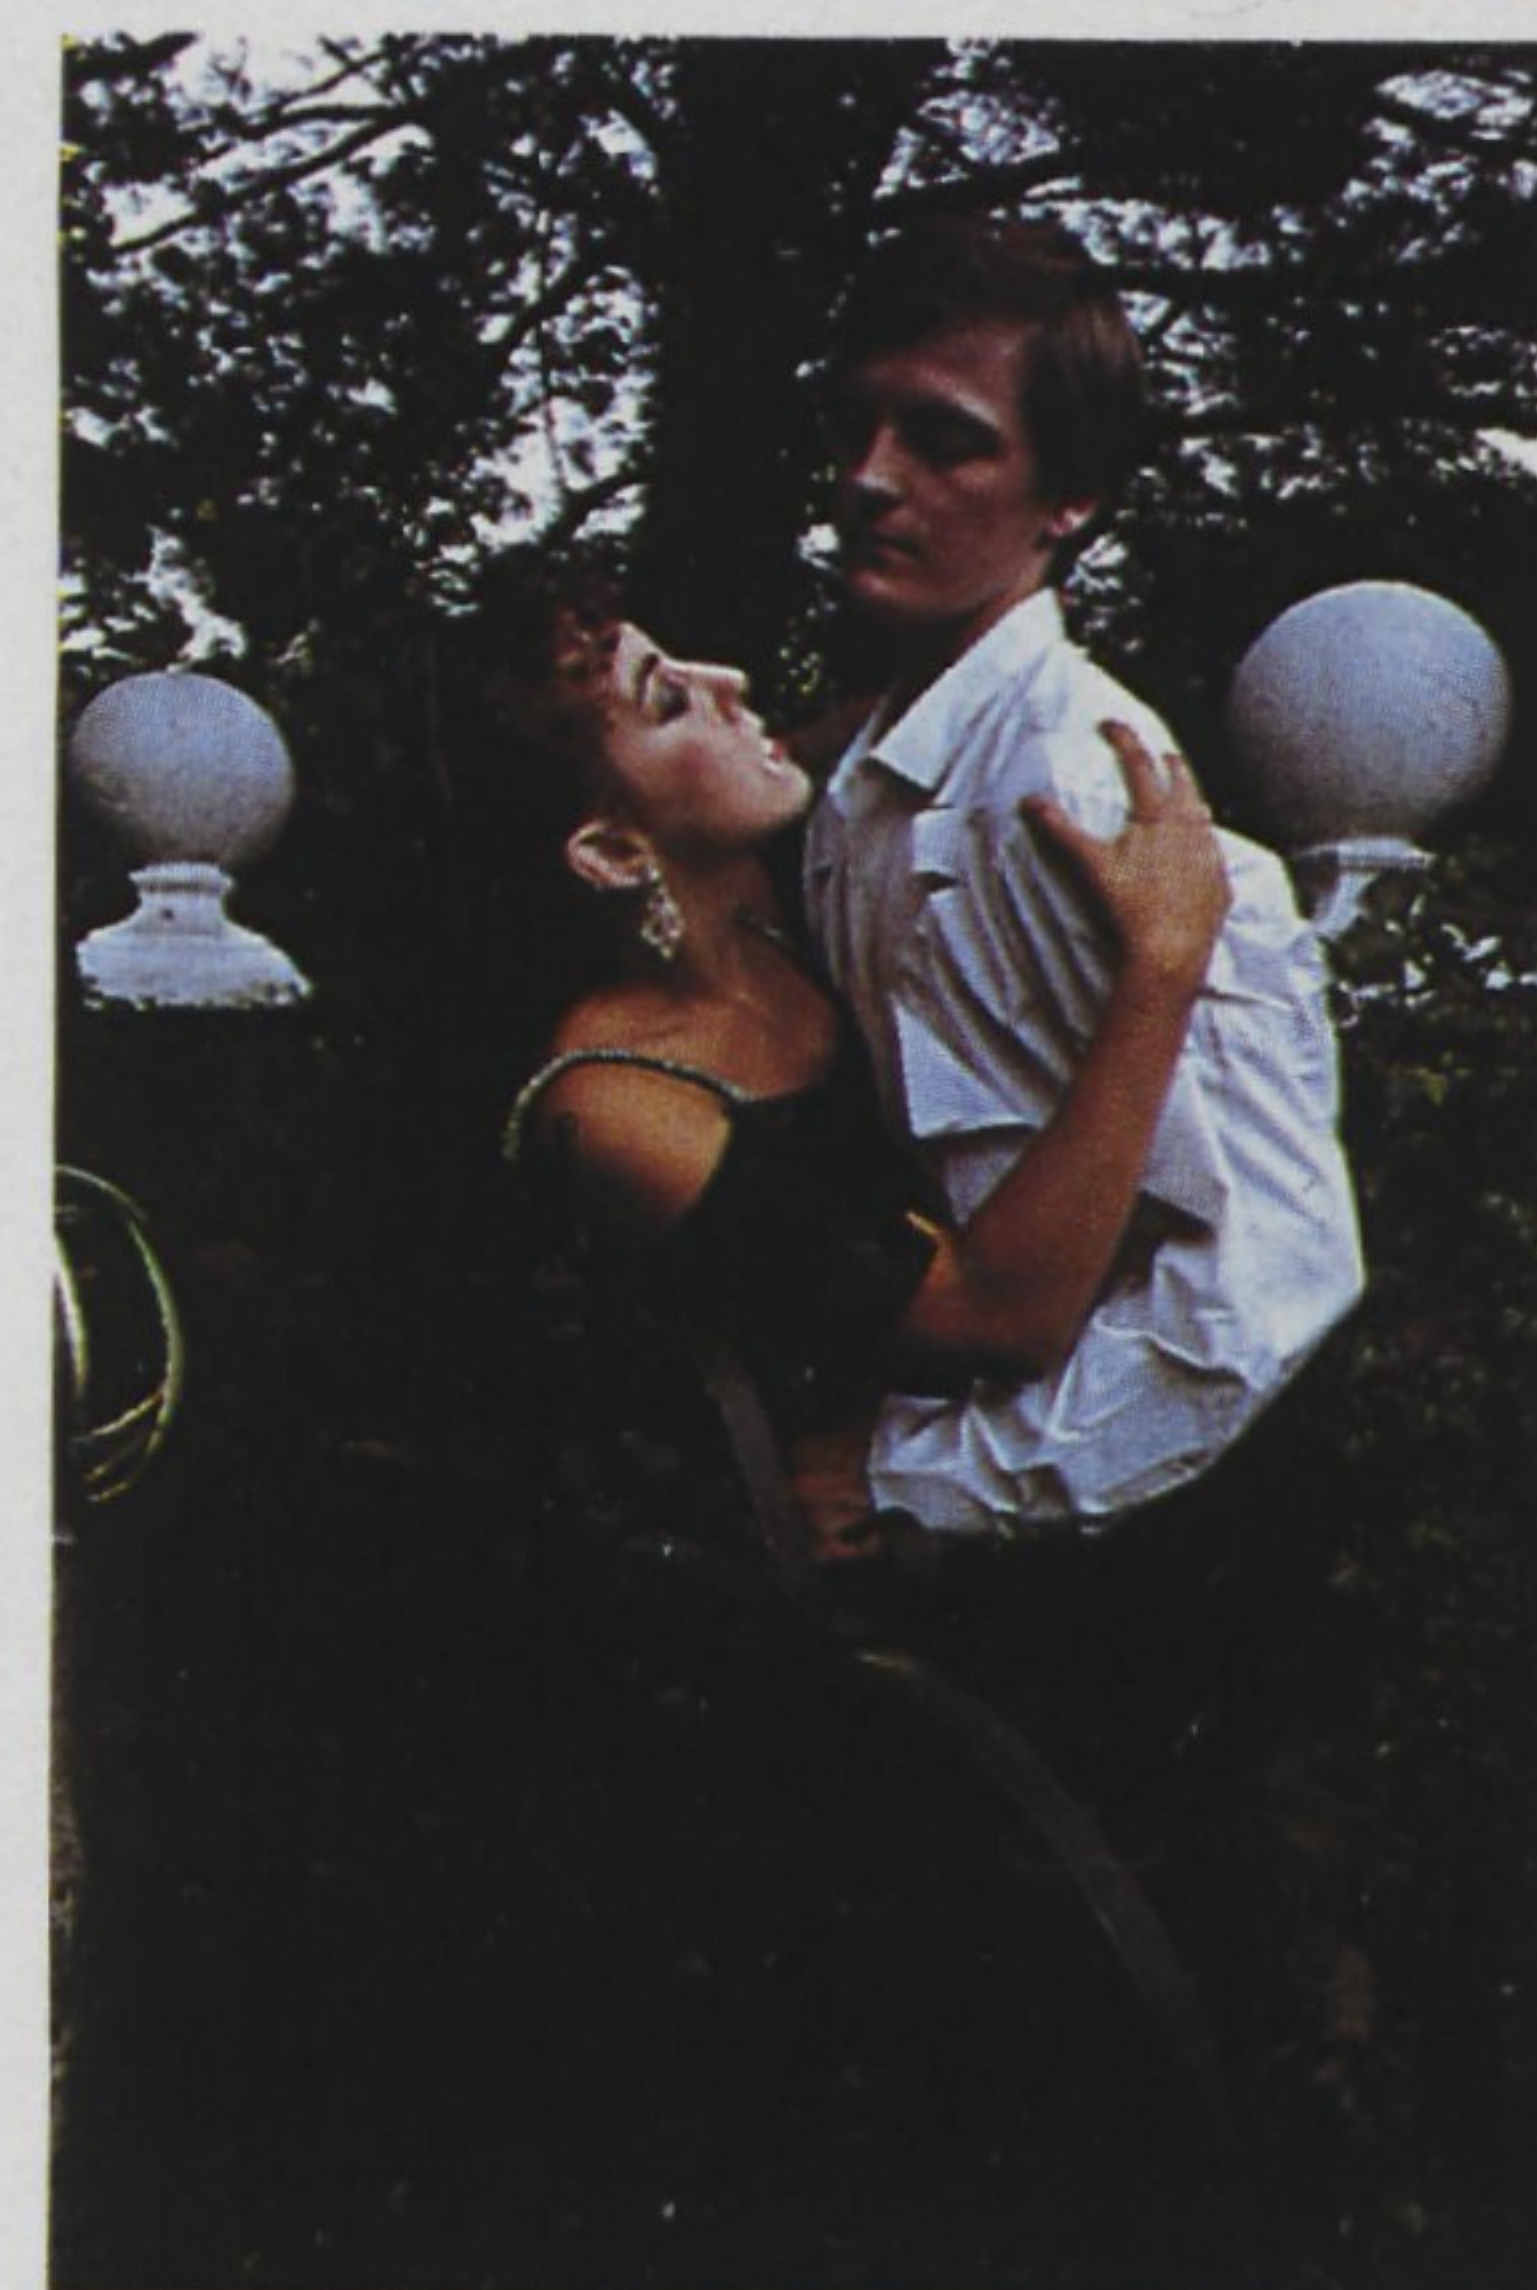

HONEY IN THE ROCK is professional theatrical entertainment produced outdoors on a wide stage that is filled with action coming from every angle. Through the years visitors keep coming back to witness the comedy of Whitey Hawkins, the spectacular Civil War scenes, the dance and music heritage of West Virginia and the valiant efforts of the Morgan family to survive the struggle that engulfs them.

HATFIELDS & McCOYS

Some say it started with a dispute over the ownership of a hog; others say the ill-fated love of Roseanne McCoy and Johnse Hatfield caused it. Whatever the reason, there was bad blood between the Hatfields of West Virginia and the McCoy's of Kentucky.

Starting in the 1860's the Hatfields and McCoy's fought a deadly game of revenge with each side seeking retribution for wrongdoings committed by the other. Their stubbornness led to almost forty years of suffering.

Each summer the story of HATFIELDS AND McCOYS lives on. This story of real mountain people, their love, pain and pride is retold to tens of thousands as they relive the famous feud at Grandview State Park. Come see this true story of family strife as it was presented by ABC and NBC news during the summer of 1982.

COUNT DRACULA

COUNT DRACULA, the play. Rising from his coffin, the evil Count Dracula stalks his prey amid laughter and screams at Cliffside Amphitheatre. See the cast from HONEY and HATFIELDS in this professional production directed by John S. Benjamin. The form in this brochure can be used for reservations August 25 through August 28 and August 30 through September 3. Seating will be limited.

other attractions

CLIFFSIDE AMPHITHEATRE was built for professional theatre productions in 1960. Its site at GRANDVIEW STATE PARK is across from a breathtaking overlook of the New River Gorge Canyon. Hiking trails, sports facilities and lush plant life makes Grandview an attraction by itself. A day at the park and an evening of theatrical entertainment under the stars is an unforgettable experience that has brought hundreds of thousands of visitors from all over the world. A variety of motels, campgrounds and restaurants are within a short drive from Grandview. Two of the most beautiful resorts in the nation are also convenient: Glade Springs and Pipestem.

THE NEW RIVER GORGE BRIDGE at Fayetteville is the world's largest steel arch bridge, spanning 1700 feet with a 360 foot rise. Supported by nine land piers, it is also the second highest bridge in the United States. Canyon River State Park is located at the north end of the bridge with several vantage points and a gift shop.

THE BECKLEY EXHIBITION COAL MINE provides a fascinating view of the coal mining process from early manual methods to contemporary mechanized techniques. Over the past twenty years a half million travellers have taken the train into the mine guided by a retired coal miner. His stories and comments give an insider's knowledge of an important part of West Virginia's heritage.

LAKE STEPHENS is a camper's paradise with its 980 foot beach covered with Ohio River sand, stocked clear water fishing, deluxe trailer court facilities and unlimited speed zone for pleasure craft and waterskiing. Lake Stephens' variety of camping locations offers everything from true wilderness experience to the comfort of showers, laundromat and supply store.

WHITE WATER RAFTING on the New River is a thrilling way to experience the beauty of America's oldest river. One-day and overnight trips are available from professional rafting companies for beginners as well as experienced rafters. The companies are headquartered along the New River from Beckley to Fayetteville. Ask for information on senior citizen float trips.

The New York Times

"Far from Broadway, in the mountains of Appalachia, a new chapter in outdoor theatre ... was created with the premiere of 'Hatfields & McCoys' ... it reveals him (the mountaineer) as a man of worth, pride and dignity ..."

"In a time when America is busy reliving its past and looking toward the future, 'Honey in the Rock' ... in a setting of breathtaking grandeur, perpetuates the magic of the theatre and the majesty of the land."

The Washington Post

"... staged with an assurance not always visible in New York offerings ... West Virginia's 'Hatfields & McCoys' is a rich, wholly professional and impressive addition to the outdoor musical plays ..." Richard Coe.

THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER

"Simply stated ... 'Hatfields' is among the best written, most effectively staged, most professionally presented and most provocatively acted theatre I've seen in a playhouse with no roof."-Tom McElfresh.

Professional theatre good food, and good times!

Enjoy dinner before theatre in an attractive picnic setting at Cliffside Amphitheatre. A moderately priced meal of fresh barbecue beef or chicken, a hot vegetable, potato salad, hot rolls and butter and all the coffee and iced tea you can drink is served prior to each production. A separate menu is available for each show. Meals are served between 7 and 7:45 p.m. Reservations are required. Make dinner reservations when you reserve your theatre tickets.
