PROPOSAL FOR THE FALL, 2003 ACADEMIC CALENDAR

TO: ECU FACULTY SENATE

FROM: GARY R. LOWE, Enrollment Manager

G.R.L.

I have provided below an alternative plan for the beginning of the 2003/04 academic year. Thank you for your consideration of this proposal.

CURRENT PROPOSED PLAN:

The current proposed calendar has Fall, 2003 beginning on Tuesday, August 26th...the following week with Labor Day has Tuesday becoming Monday...classes would end on Tuesday, December 9th, with exams following immediately on the 10th, no Reading Day, and exams ending on Wednesday, December 17th.

ALTERNATE PROPOSED PLAN:

Classes would begin on Wednesday, August 27th...the following week with Labor Day...Tuesday would remain Tuesday, while Wednesday would become Monday.....for normal day classes this would be absolutely no disruption, it would directly effect night classes....(but wait, this is cleared up at the end of the semester)...the last day of classes would become Wednesday, December 10th....this picks up the deleted Wednesday for night classes...Exams would begin on Thursday, December 11th and end on Thursday, December 18th.

Number of class days for each plan:
