Greenville, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Brodie:

Thank you for your letter of April 19, 1970, concerning a highway marker for East Carolina University.

You will be interested to know that a proposed marker inscription for East Carolina has already been written and will be submitted to the Historical Highway Marker Committee at its next meeting. Approval of the inscription by the Committee should be routine. Hopefully, the marker will be in place by the fall of this year.

I hope this answers the questions you raised in your letter. If you need further information, please let me know.

Sincerely,

John S. Duvall
