Greetings, Jim:

I want to thank you for listening to us regarding strategic directions and the role of the Academic Program Development Team.

Thank you for agreeing to include budget/resource matters as a responsibility of the APD at the initial notification of intent to plan a program, and to have faculty representation on APD that is proportional to administrative representation on EPPC (9 faculty to 3 administrators) so that our planning process will become more effective. I also wholeheartedly agree that meeting with Linner Griffin, Deirdre Mageean, Phyllis Horns, DeeDee Glascoff and Dale Knickerbocker in order to discuss this will be very helpful. In the meantime, Ralph Scott and Cheryl Stevens will attend the upcoming APD team meetings.

Further, thank you for concurring with our recommendation that unit heads should not appoint administrators as liaisons to the curriculum committee.

Thanks again,

Mark
