

8:15 NIGHTLY Except Mondays

JUNE 28 thru SEPTEMBER 1, 1958 In the beautiful DANIEL BOONE THEATRE BOONE, NORTH CAROLINA

ON the same ground history was made 187 years ago, this gripping story unfolds reliving the hardships, the humor, the struggle for survival of our forefathers. Pioneers who carved a deep niche in history speak again the thoughts that erupted in revolution and won independence in the new world. The courage of Daniel Boone, the divided loyalties of Dr. Geoffrey Stuart, the inspiration of Preacher Isaiah Sims wring emotions, while the humor of Widow Howard and Toby Miller remind of the human, fun-loving element that kept alive spirits dampened at times by hostile Indians and the British militia.

...faith...humor...tragedy!

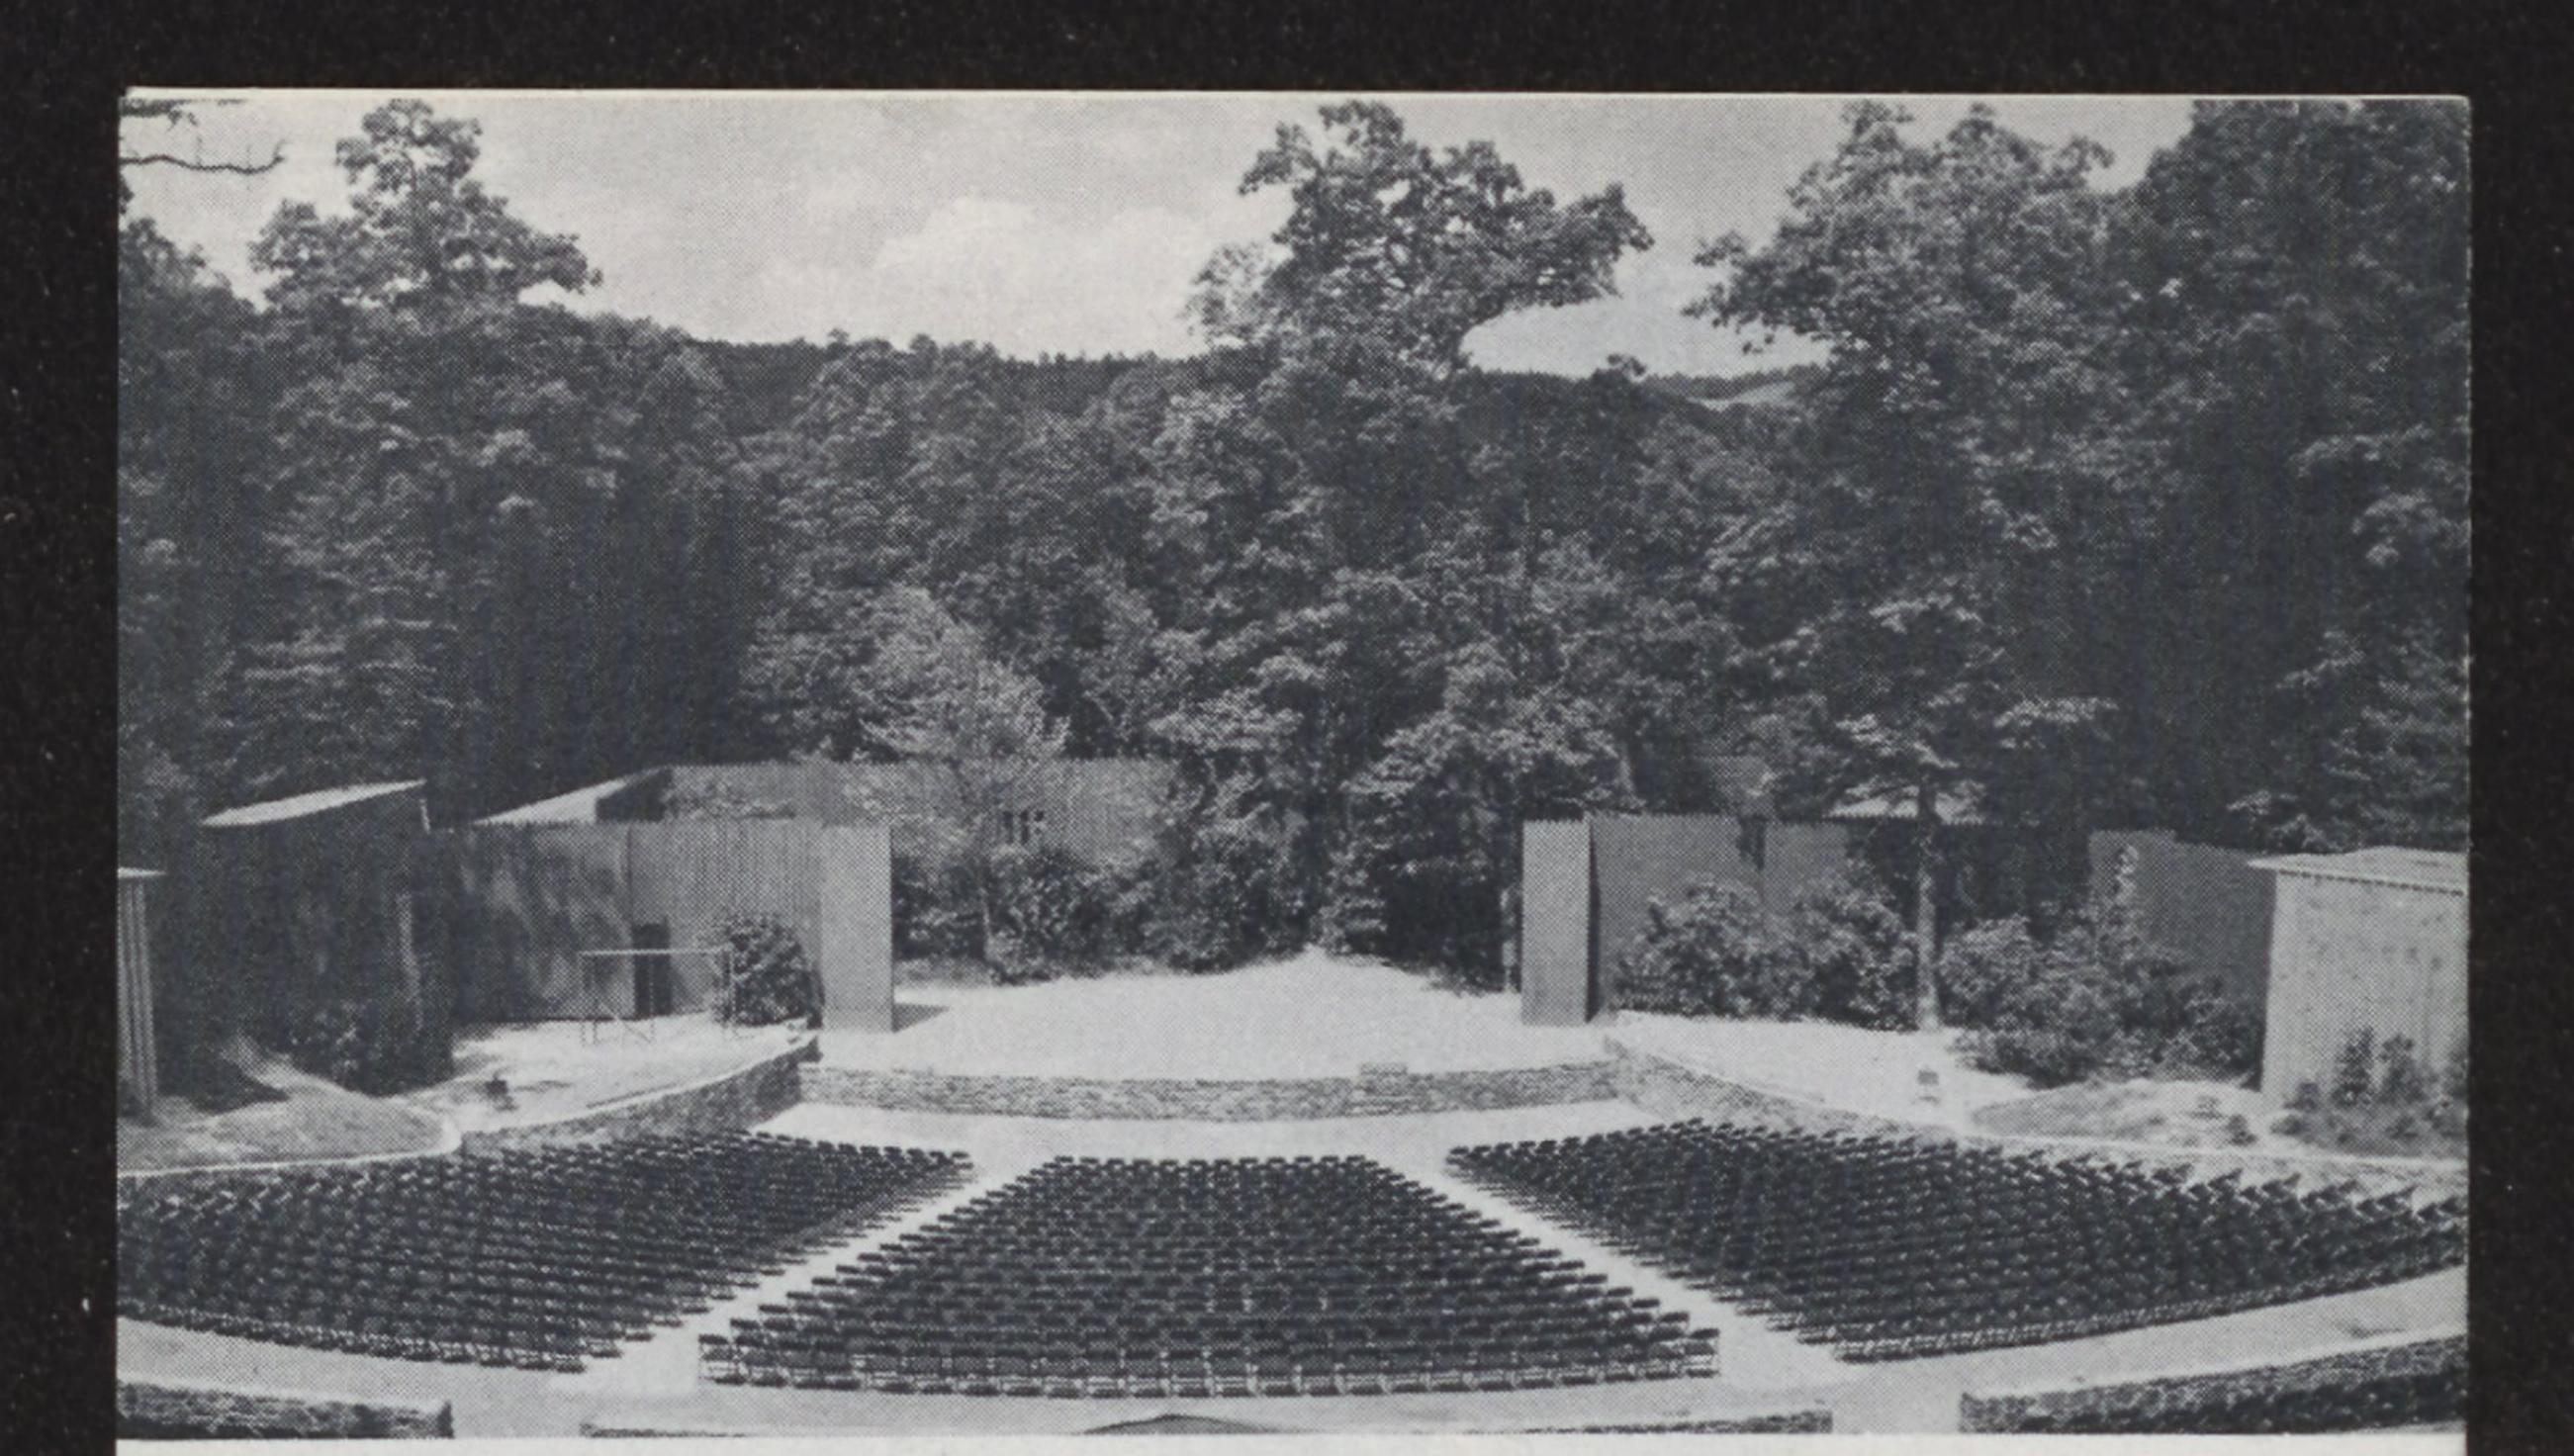

HORN IN THE WEST

The beautiful Daniel Boone Theatre seats 2,400 persons and is the Highest Outdoor Theatre in Eastern America. Here is a panoramic view without parallel in the country.

SPONSOR

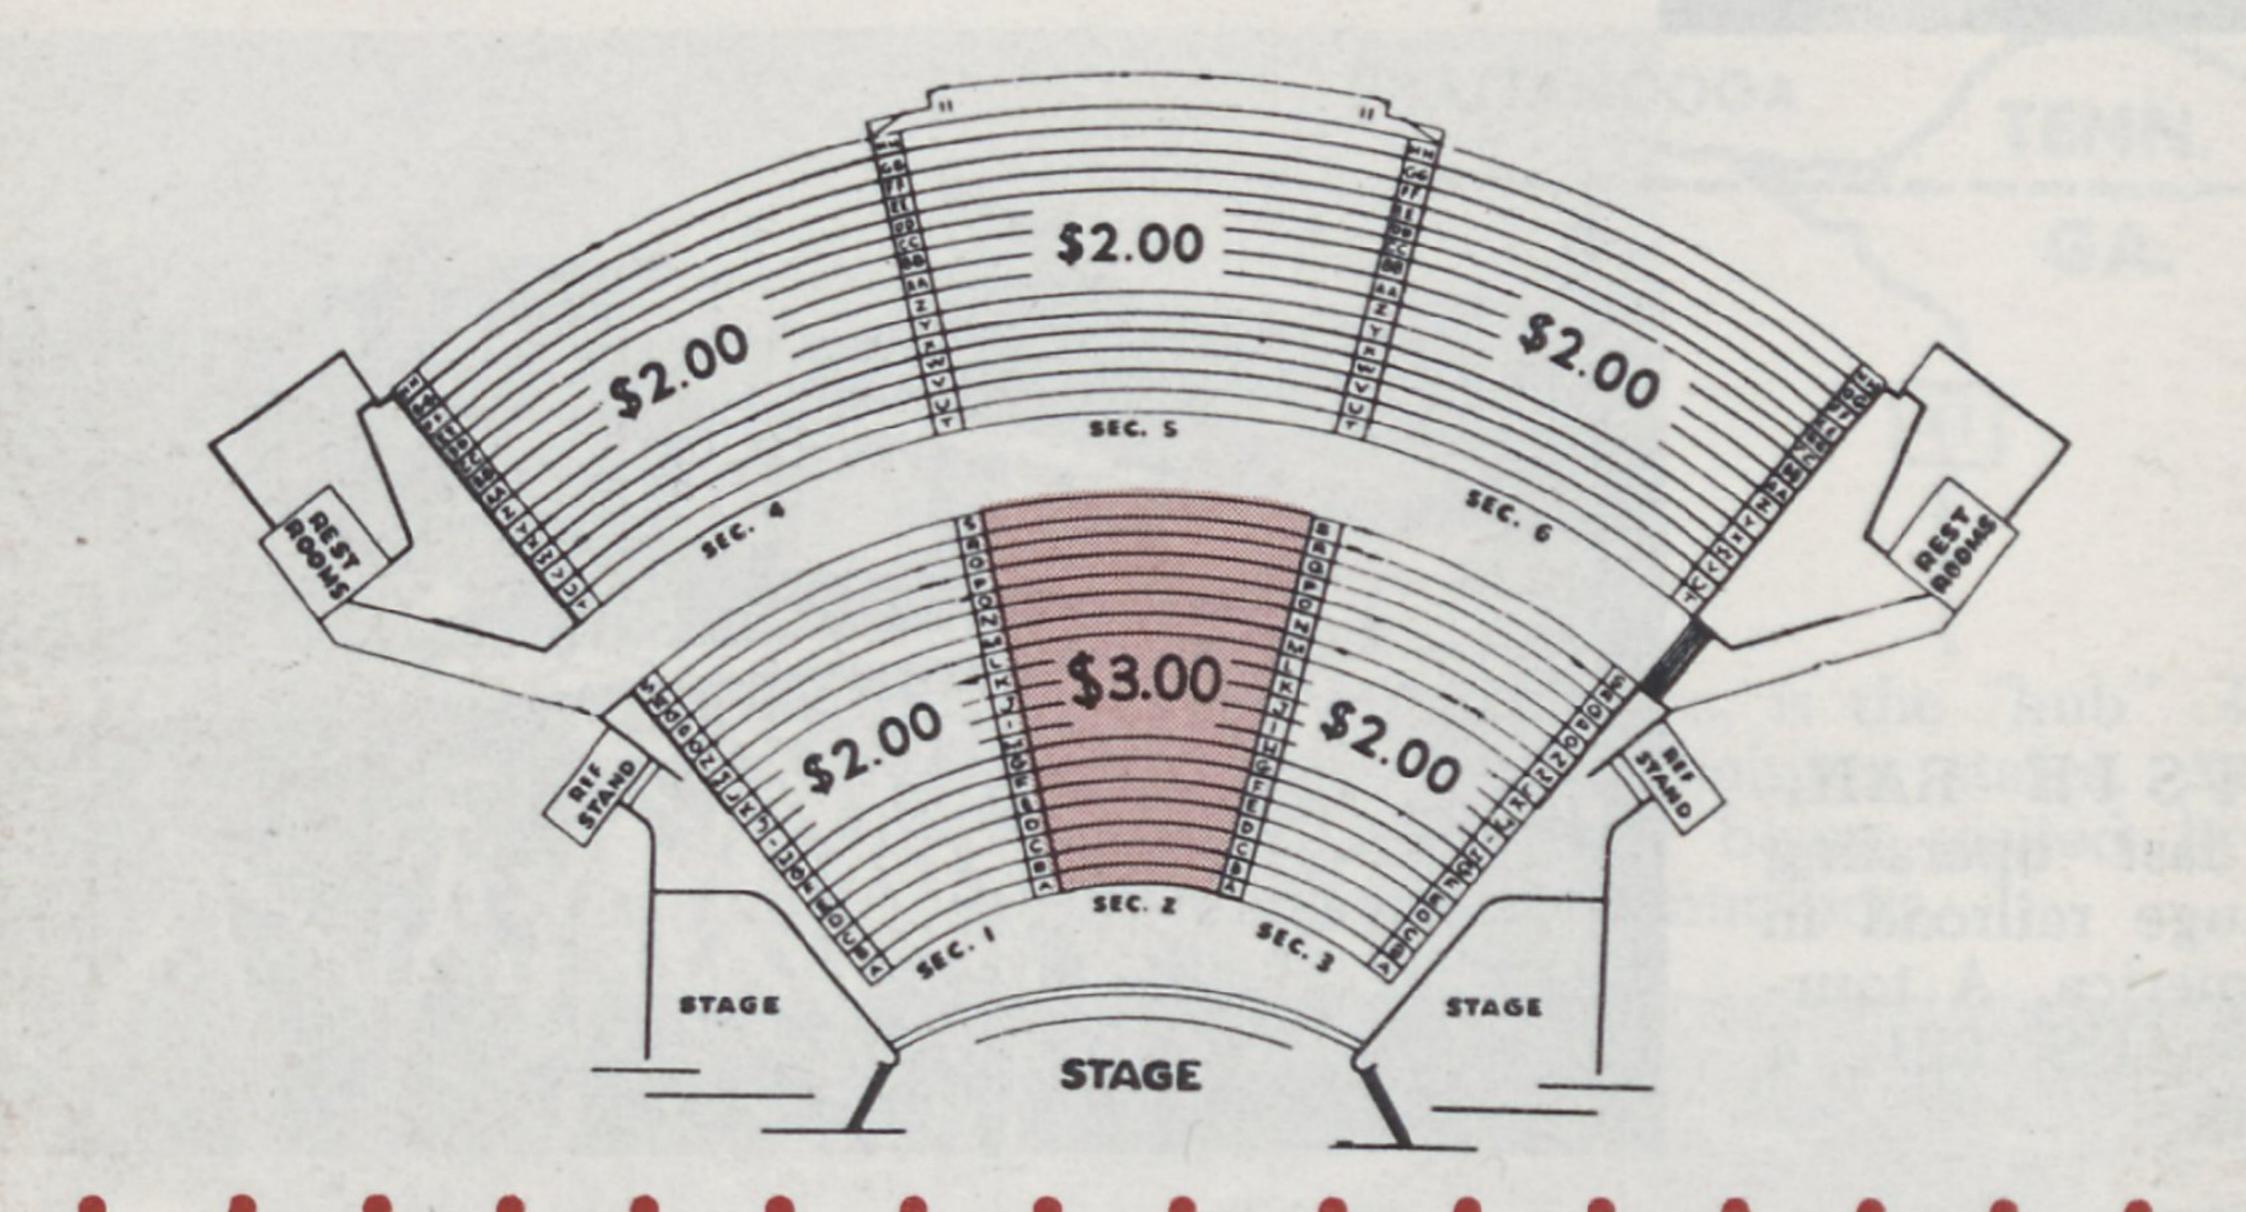

The Southern Appalachian Historical Association

LODGING

The HORN in the WEST box office at the Daniel Boone Theatre will help you arrange for accommodations. If you will advise us of the type and price rooms you desire we will make the best reservations possible, confirming by mail, collect telephone or telegraph at your request.

TICKETS

Reserved Seats-Section	2	3.00
General Admission-All (Other Sections	2.00
(A	·

TICKET ORDER FORM

Please mail to M
Address
City
No	Adult Tickets for HORN in the WEST.
No	Children's Tickets for HORN in the WEST.
for the	day date
I enclose my check Please allow ampl	or money order for $ e time for us to mail tickets to you. If too late to mail tickets we will confirm order and hold your tickets at box office. We cannot make refunds unless tickets are returned to us and reservations canceled prior to performance date.