

East Carolina University

The East Carolina Creed

In the pursuit of educational excellence, responsible stewardship, and intellectual freedom, the community of scholars at East Carolina University is committed to learning at the highest level. Founded in the tradition of service and leadership, members of our academic society exemplify high standards of professional and personal conduct at all times.

As an East Carolinian...

I will carry out personal and academic integrity.

I will respect and appreciate the diversity of our people, ideas, and opinions.

I will be thoughtful and responsible in my words and actions.

I will engage in purposeful citizenship by serving as a positive role model.

Adherence to these moral principles is the obligation of every East Carolinian on and off campus.

In doing so, our individual freedom to learn and a plea to serve will be preserved.

Don't Cancel That Class!

Don't Cancel That Class is a resource that provides faculty members with alternative sessions and workshops for students when instructors are unable to attend regularly scheduled classes. These sessions are designed to enhance the personal and academic growth of our students and can often link to course material.

Current topics covered include:

- Stress Management
- Prioritizing My Life
- Relationship Issues
- Conflict Management
- Job Searching by Major or Career Field
- Know the Code
- Safety and You

For more information or if you would like to request a class presentation, please contact the Dean of Students Office at 252-328-9297 or come by our office at 362 Wright Building.
