BRIG. GEN'L. SAMSON LANE FAISON
CAMBRIDGE ARMS
34TH AND NORTH CHARLES STREETS
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

Oct. 30, 1931,

Dear Good: I forgot to ask you in my last letter if you had ever written to Senator Simmons about the Lane connection. There are reasons (entirely personal) why I do not care to write to him on the subject. Our great grandfather's oldest son was named Furnifold Lane. You have in your possession records showing that John Lane, Sr., deeded a tract of land near New Bern to ^{his son} Samson Lane & that George Lane deeded a tract of land (100 acres) to his son, John Lane. If Mr. Simmons is related to Samson Lane, he might be interested & trace back who ^{this} George Lane was. I think it is worth the effort & could be easily done by Senator Sumner if he is interested.

Of course he may not be related to the Lorns at all, or he may be related only by marriage.

If you don't mind, will you please write him on the subject.

With best wishes
Sincerely yours,
S. L. Levin
