The Right Honorable Sir Henry Dalziel, Bart., P. C. M. P.,
London, W.

My dear Dalziel:

This will introduce to you my cousin, Louis Poisson Davis, who is Lieutenant-Commander in the U. S. Navy, and has been for some time commanding one of the torpedo boats in European waters. Some times he goes to London, and when he does next time, I want him to have the pleasure of meeting you, for I know that you will be glad to meet any friend of mine, and particularly a young relative of whom we are all very proud.

In Washington they treated me royally, and the business on which I am engaged is moving very satisfactorily. I am here for a day or two, and then away to Sonora, and back again ^{to} ~~here in~~ the States, from there to the City of Mexico, via Laredo.

Messrs. Wells, Fargo & Co., 51 Broadway, New York, will always reach me, and ~~it~~ is my per-

With all good wishes to you, and trusting that you are in the best of health,

Yours cordially and sincerely,
