

Office of the N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Company,

Raleigh, March 2 1866.

Amount of Renewal in Cash, - - -	$ 95.75
“ of Interest on Note, - - -	$ 66.96 $ 162.71

Mr. B. J. Spruill

Above I hand you a statement of your Annual Renewa' of Premium on Policy No. 418 due 29 of January 1866.

Enclosed you have a Premium Note which please sign and return to this office with Cash payment and Interest due on Note bearing date the 29 of January 1865, when said Note will be returned to you, and receipt sent for cash paid.

Respectfully Yours,

A. H. Battle Secretary.

While the military held the country over for some short time afterwards, before them mates? and if so, where, how long, and how often?

Whether any signs of affection of the head, or of predisposition to it? Whether Paralysis, Tremors, Twitchings of any part, or any other nervous affections? . . .

Stethoscopic character of respiration and heart's action: rate and other qualities of the pulse?

Whether habitual cough, or expectoration, occasional difficulty of breathing, or palpitation?

was any money in the country permitted parties to receive by giving a cash note for the cash received & interest. This note was payable on day after date & was only a term - providing arrangement to prevent parties from losing their jobs at a time when money could not be obtained because there was none in the country. Now in regard to money before the old times

very truly
W. H. Battle

W. H. Battle