NOMINATING COMMITTEE FOR FACULTY OFFICERS REPORT ELECTION OF FACULTY OFFICERS

Candidate for Chair of the Faculty

Mark Sprague, Department of Physics

After careful reflection and consultation with many faculty members from across campus, I have decided to place my name back into nomination for Chair of the Faculty. This is not a frivolous decision. Last Thursday I resolved not to run for Chair when I examined all of my commitments, including that of Physics undergraduate program director as well as my commitment to my family. I wanted, then and now, to have a Chair of the Faculty fully dedicated to that job, and I saw too many other demands on my time. I have reevaluated my commitments and will step away from my program director assignment to devote my efforts to being Chair of the Faculty, if elected. I have gained valuable experience over that last year and made the necessary connections to advocate for the faculty to the administration and the Board of Trustees. Next year will not be easy. We are in a political climate that does not prioritize higher education. We must continue to champion our programs and university. I will represent the faculty to the administration and continue to insist we absorb as many cuts as possible in non-academic areas. Some important issues we will consider next year include general education, assessment, libraries, strategic planning, articulation, training, and improving the process for faculty advice on administrative policies. I will be your advocate in each of these areas, and I will work for faculty-led solutions.

Candidates for Vice Chair of the Faculty

Andrew Morehead, Department of Chemistry

During this past year as Vice Chair of the Faculty I have been a tireless advocate for the faculty and our role in educating students and pursuing our scholarly activities and for shared governance of the University. I have chosen to serve the Faculty Senate and the ECU Faculty in this role because I have had a long-term interest and belief in the principles of shared governance and in service to the university. I began my service to the Senate during my first year as an Assistant Professor, serving on the Unit Code Screening Committee, and since then I have served on Senate Committees continuously, including the Foundations Curriculum and Instructional Effectiveness (nee Academic Standards) and the Governance Committees. I also serve as the Senate Representative on the Honors College Faculty Advisory Committee and the Graduate Council, and as an ECU delegate and Secretary of the Faculty Assembly. In all of those positions I have advocated in a pragmatic, problem-solving, and (hopefully) farsighted manner for the best interests of the Students, Faculty, and University as a whole. My work as Vice Chair has broadened my ability to do so, and I ask for your support in continuing those efforts for another year.

Christine Zoller, School of Art and Design

Starting in the fall 2013 semester, I will begin my seventeenth year as a faculty member at East Carolina University. I have been fortunate to have been a Faculty Senator for 8 years and have had the privilege to serve as Secretary of the Faculty and Chair of the Senate Agenda Committee numerous times. I have worked with so many exceptional people whose contributions to University service and commitment to shared governance have been most impressive. We all are members of various committees and I am proud to have served my unit as Faculty Chairperson and Chair to the Personnel and Executive Committees. I am currently Secretary for both our unit Graduate Committee and Ad Hoc Unit Code Committee. Within the University community, I have served on the Due Process and Faculty Governance Committees and am currently on both the Hearing and Unit Code Screening standing University Committees. However, I say with sincerity that my favorite place to be is in the Senate. There is something special that happens here and it is exciting to be a part of the discussions and the decisions we make each time we meet. The Nominating Committee honors me with this opportunity to serve you in a new position as Vice Chair of the Faculty. I promise to work hard for all faculty members at ECU and will relish having an even broader role in the future of our University. I ask for your consideration and support.

Candidates for Secretary of the Faculty

Cheryl McFadden, College of Education

I have put my name forward for the office of Secretary of the Faculty this year because I want to continue to be a part of shaping the future of our University and ensuring that the process of governance is both fair and transparent to all parties. The Our Time, Our Future: The UNC Compact with North Carolina Strategic Directions for 2013-2018 will have profound implications for our University; it is imperative that faculty be actively involved in shaping the process of implementation. It is important for Faculty to protect the integrity of our colleges and programs. I have served two terms on the Faculty Senate and serve as an elected member of the Graduate Council where I was elected Vice-Chair of the Graduate Council this year. I currently serve on the following committees: Agenda, Faculty Governance, Libraries, and the Chancellor's Committee on the Status of Women and the Advocacy Committee of this body. The experience I've acquired during my tenure at ECU combined with my institutional knowledge of higher education leadership will enable me to serve in this important role in the Faculty Senate and will continue to work to represent the entire faculty in my activities and leadership roles.

Matthew Reynolds, Academic Library Services

My decision to run for Secretary of the Faculty is grounded in several beliefs. First and foremost, I believe that higher education in North Carolina is in a precarious position. State leadership in Raleigh has recently shown a profound lack of understanding as to depth and importance of what takes place on UNC System campuses. This lack of understanding will lead to continued degradation of both monetary and popular support unless it is clearly addressed by maintaining open lines of communication and showing strong leadership as faculty. I believe that an active and effective system of shared governance is integral to this process. Additionally, I believe that as faculty it is our duty to support as best we can the institutions that support us. In the coming year, the Faculty Senate will be asked to make difficult choices and develop complex plans to successfully complete university objectives despite the persistently austere environment. In my nearly eight years at East Carolina University and nearly three years as the Faculty Senate Representative for Academic Library Services, I feel that I have gained valuable insight on University functions. This experience, combined with work on the QEP Steering and Digital Education and Learning Technology Committees, have provided me with skills and understanding that will help me serve effectively as Secretary and meaningfully assist with the completion of these tasks.
