This is being sent on behalf of Professor Derek Maher, Chair of the Faculty Officers' Nominating Committee.

ECU Faculty,

Since the agenda was issued last week, Faculty Chair Mark Sprague withdrew from consideration for election as chair and issued a statement. He later decided to return to the race.

The Faculty Officers' Nominating Committee has met again today and decided that new statements, where they were offered, would be added to a new revised agenda, as attached. We took this step in the hopes that all faculty members would have as much time as possible to consider the candidates and communicate with their faculty senate representatives.

Attached you will find a revised draft of the agenda for the Faculty Senate's organizational meeting scheduled for today, Tuesday, April 23, 2013 at 2:10 pm in the Mendenhall Student Center Great Room. All faculty are invited to attend this open meeting.
