

Resolution Honoring Catherine Rigsby

Unanimously approved by the UNC Faculty Assembly on April 4th, 2014

Whereas, The Faculty Assembly is charged with the task of gathering and exchanging information on behalf of the faculties of the UNC campuses; and

Whereas, The Faculty Assembly plays a central role in advising the Board of Governors and the President of the University on matters of university-wide importance; and

Whereas, The Chair of the Faculty Assembly is responsible for organizing and presiding over meetings of the Assembly, supervising the work of task forces and special committees, serving as chief liaison between the Assembly and the President of the University, the Board of Governors and other agencies; and

Whereas, The governance, management, budgetary, and public service challenges to the University of North Carolina have required the diligent and vigilant engagement of the faculty; and

Whereas, Professor Catherine Rigsby has served with exemplary commitment and determination in her leadership of the faculty in her role as Chair of the Faculty Assembly; and

Whereas, Catherine Rigsby has been a tireless advocate for the faculty, students, and staff of the UNC system, and the citizens of North Carolina; and

Whereas, Catherine Rigsby's organizational skills, political acumen, and integrity have made Faculty Assembly and General Administration committees and councils remarkably effective shared-governance partners with the Board of Governors and external stakeholders; and

Whereas, The contributions of Catherine Rigsby as Chair of the Faculty Assembly have been most numerous and significant for the faculties of the constituent institutions that we represent; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Faculty Assembly expresses its profound gratitude and respect to Catherine Rigsby for her outstanding leadership as Chair for the Faculty Assembly for 2012-2014.
