PRIVATE SECRETARY

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

April 1, 1918.

Miss Frances B. Renfrow,

Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Miss Frances:-

I write to ask you a favor. It is reported that The Charlotte Observer has said editorially that Governor Aycock was worthy to be United States Senator, and the great majority of the people in their hearts wanted him, but that he was poor, and therefore could never be Senator. I can't find an Observer containing this article. If Governor Aycock has an extra copy, could you send it to me, or if only one, would you mind copying the exact words in regard to this matter, and let me have it, as I can use it with a great deal of power.

Hoping that I am not asking too much of you, as I want this to aid the Governor, I am,

Yours sincerely,

R. B. Glenn
