Dear Mrs. Fleming,

It was good to hear your voice yesterday, but it would have been so much better for us if you could have come by for a few moments even and let us see you. You will never know quite how much of a genuine benediction you are to those who know you.

I do hope that Mr. Humber is much better by this time. Please give my regards to Mrs. Humber and the others when you can.

A copy of the little book went to you by yesterday's mail. You should not have left the pay for it. I wonder what your opinion will be, especially of section III.

With our best to you and yours always,

Sincerely,
A. Reid
