

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
AT GREENSBORO

Department of History and Political Science

Dear Mrs. Edmunds,

My unpardonable lapse in time has in no way diminished our most pleasant recollections of a delightful day with you, Miss Jane, the Wallensteins, Black Walnut, Red Fields, and the other beautiful old homes we saw in Halifax County. We are most indebted to you for the entire day.

I am also indebted to you for Tales of the Virginia Coast and the Pocahontas story — both of which were fascinating.

Incidentally, this week I received the Xeroxed letters from Anne Ruffin which I appreciated.

I hope you will let us know the next time you come to Greensboro. Mary and I would love to see you.

She joins me in all good wishes. Again, our appreciation for a delightful day!

Cordially,
Rockwell P. Robinson
