Dear Captain:

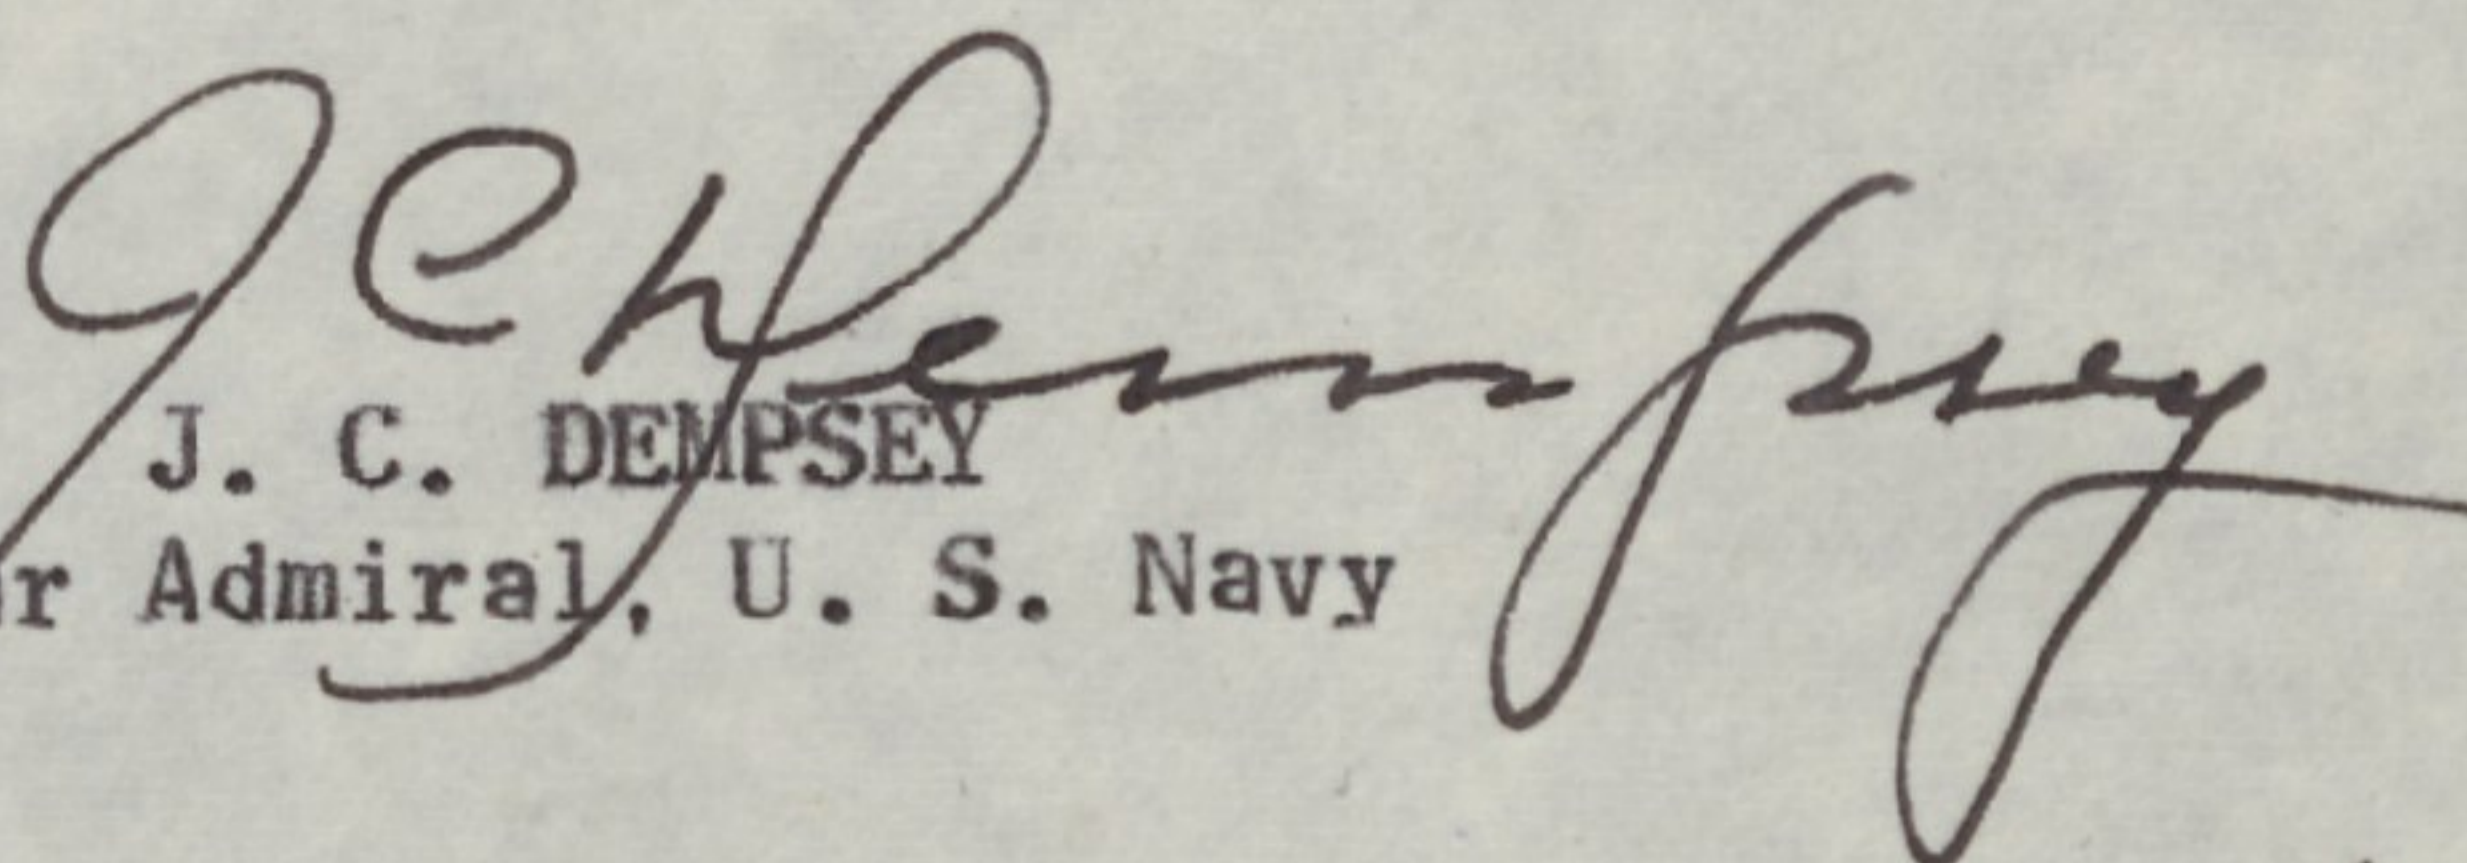

I cordially invite you to be the guest speaker on the occasion of the graduation dinner of the PHIBLANT Petty Officer Leadership Academy. The dinner will take place at 1900, Thursday, 21 November and will be held in the Leadership Academy Mess in Building 3038, Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek.

The purpose of the dinner is to mark the conclusion of the four week course in Leadership. Remarks you have in mind concerning the principles of Leadership and the application of General Order 21 would be appropriate.

The uniform will be Service Dress Blue Bravo. Lieutenant Commander N. H. SCAWTHORN, USN, acting as Master of Ceremonies, will introduce you.

The dinner serves as a social gathering for members of the graduating class and their wives. We try to afford an opportunity for the wives to attend as many of the functions of the Leadership Academy as possible in order to recognize the important part they have in the Navy Man's career.

Sincerely yours,

J. C. DEMPSEY
Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy
