

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS
IN THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

30 July 1998

Dear Fellow Warriors:

Please note for your calendars that the Fall Court of the North Carolina Society of Colonial Wars will be a luncheon meeting at Hope Valley Country Club in Durham at 12:00 noon on Thursday, 15 October. You will be receiving further details of the meeting as we get closer to that date, including information about the program, directions to the Club, menu, etc. Please be thinking of prospective new members whom you can invite to the luncheon, remembering that the General Society has provided funds for our use for that purpose, and that if we don't grow, we die!

Nancy and I had the privilege of representing the Society, together with Grant Peterson and Roger Pegram, at the annual meeting of the General Society in Richmond in May. These are always outstanding events, and I wish that every member could experience them. In September, there will be a series of meetings and events at Clare College, Cambridge University, the purpose of which will be to establish a Society in Great Britain. Nancy and I expect to attend and I hope that there will be something positive to report to you about this in October.

I look forward to seeing many of you at the October meeting.

Cordially,

Myron C. Banks
Governor
