

[11/6/1915]

My dearest, I have certainly missed you
to-day and I certainly hated to see you leave but I did not want to beg you to stay this time, as I knew that you really had to go home for I heard Lizzie tell you.
I have taken

whether you were going hence to-day, for that is the same trip that I promised to take with them, the last time, that you were here.

My dear I certainly would love to see you to-morrow but I am glad I did not tell you that I would for at present I am in the same fix that I was last week

My dear I am going to bed you good night (last night) bed early to-night 9:00 o'clock as I am real tired. With all my love, I am as ever

Mother sends love, and said that she wishes you were away to-day. I am not saying that to be untrue, as I am real truthful to-night. D.W.

That trip to Richmond
and the roads are certainly awful. When I had consented to go with them they asked me who was I going to take, and they said that they thought sure I was going to ask you to go as I was so relying about it, but I thought that when I was asking you so
passive last night
