

The Officers and Members of Valdosta Post No. 13

The American Legion

To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greetings:

Be it known to you and to posterity that whereas

Robert W. Jennings

by his loyal co-operation and sterling character, in responding to the call of his Country in its hour of need, has won for himself our sincere and lasting appreciation, along with that of all citizens of Lowndes County, Georgia, at a time when our homes, our lives, our sacred honor and our posterity are at stake. And so in grateful appreciation and honorable remembrance we bestow this token.

With all the privileges and honors pertaining thereto.

Dated this 11 day of November, Nineteen Hundred Forty Three.

E. K. Cooney
